'Swing Your Partner'... Class Starts

Tuesday, November 24, will be remembered as a red-letter day for the square dancers of the City of Torrance. The Torrance Recreation department has just announced that beginning on that date it will sponsor classes for those interested in learning to square dance. The classes will meet every Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the Civic Auditorium, located on the corner of El Prado and Cravens in downtown Torrance. Adults interested in the class are urged to attend the first meeting of the group so that the instructor can determine whether it will be necessary to start the class for beginners, or intermediates. The class will also sponsor parties and invitational dances from time to time with enjoyable recreation being the keynote for the entire program.

Instructor
The instructor retained by the Recreation Department for the class will be the very well-known South Bay square dance caller, Gerald F. Reeser. His wife, Iowa, will assist him on class nights. Reeser has been instructing classes in the Torrance area for the past four years.

30 Weeks
According to Reeser, square dance classes usually run for a period of 30 weeks. Ten weeks for beginners, 10 weeks for intermediates, and 10 weeks for advanced square dancing. This 30-week pattern will be followed here in Torrance. A nominal charge for lessons will be made to the public. This money is used to defray the expenses for the evening, and to help pay the cost of the parties that are planned from time to time.

Club
In addition to the new square dance class the Torrance Recreation Department also sponsors a square dance club, "The Dudes and Dolls," that meets every other Wednesday for an evening of square dancing in the Civic Auditorium. The next dance meeting will be 8 p.m., Wednesday, December 2. Darrell Brown, another very popular caller in this area, is the regular caller for the club.

Famed Teams To Stage Exhibition

Torrance volleyball enthusiasts will have an opportunity to see many of the world's best men and women players in action in the Torrance high school's gymnasium, Tuesday, November 24, at 7:30 p.m., when the Long Beach YMCA veterans, which under Coach Al Fish, finished 1953 as the runner-up team in the national championship, held in Omaha, last May, play an exhibition match with the Long Beach YMCA. Open team, who are coached by Fuzzy Frazier and also competed in Omaha last May, winning second place in both the national open and the national YMCA open tournaments.

Members

Members of the veterans team who are scheduled to appear here are: Bernie Specht and Henri Collis, both of whom were chosen as members of the 1953 All-American team; Fuzzy Frazier, who won a spot on the All-American second team; Bob McConnell, Glenn Wing, Walt Theobald and Russ Larson.

Opponents

The opponent, Long Beach Y open team boast an equal array of top flight players. Heading the list is Jim Montague, team captain, who won triple honors in the 1953 championships. He won All-American honors and was named as the most outstanding player in National A. U. championships, and competing in the National Open Tourney was selected for the first team in that division of play. Teammate John Barcus also earned All-American A. U. first team honors. Verne Grayson won a spot on the All-American second string and Bill Olsson won an honorable mention award.

Others

Other outstanding players on the team are: John Crutchfield, Mikey Morgan, Ed Evedland, Ray Berns and Dick McGuire. Featuring the women's exhibition will be the Westerners team, a new Long Beach team, organized and coached by Al Fish. Leading the Westerners attack will be Joan Neff, 1953 All-American, and former member of the national women's championship team from Santa Monica, and Peeley Willson, who won a place on the second team 1953 All-American selections. Other top-ranking team members are: Kay Robson, Connie Kellar, Lois Haraghty and Dorothy Haryung. The opposition team is to be composed of an all-star aggregation to be selected from top-flight teams playing the southland area, according to Al Fish, Long Beach YMCA physical education director, and Elmer "Red" Moon, Torrance city director of athletics, who have cooperated in staging the big event for the benefit of local citizens. The public is invited to attend free of charge. As a featured attraction, the all-male champion volleyball team from Mexico will play the All Stars.

John Bainer Promoted To Lt. Colonel

Highlight of the regular Wednesday evening meeting of the 9355th VARTU, Long Beach Air Force Base, were orders read by the 9078th Group Training Officer, Col. Jesse E. Spray, promoting John I. Bainer, Commanding Officer of the 9355th, to Lieutenant Colonel.

Lt. Colonel Bainer wears the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal with 9 Oak Leaf Clusters, the American Campaign Ribbon, the European Theatre of Operation with 3 Battle Stars, the Victory Medal, and the Reserve Medal for 10 years of military service.

Married to the former Matilda Guza of Marianna, Pennsylvania, and father of three girls and one boy, Col. Bainer resides in Torrance, California, and works as a design engineer at the Northrup Aircraft plant at Hawthorne, California.

Sgt. Taber Graduates From Academy

Sgt. Alfred L. Taber, whose wife, Veri, lives at 507 Harbor Hills, Lomita, recently graduated from the Seventh Army's Non-Commissioned Officer Academy in Munich, Germany.

The course, designed to provide qualified enlisted leaders included tactics, weapons, army organization and techniques of leadership.

Sergeant Taber, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Taber of 14713 Gibson street, Compton, California, arrived overseas last February and is assigned as a mechanic with the 503rd Signal company.

Before entering the army in 1946, Taber worked for the Union Oil company.

"Walteria Village"

Store Cluster Gets New Name

The Smith Brothers Fish Shanty and the surrounding shops on Pacific Coast Highway will no longer be nameless orphans and have assumed the name of "Walteria Village."

A spectacular Christmas display is now being planned which will be one means of making the new name official and calling attention to the cluster of shops.

Artist Marion Curtis Manning of Ceramics by Mel, is designing the decorations. Scenes from five different Christmas songs will be erected in nine-foot figures on the top of the stores and a candy cane lane will serve as entrance to "Walteria Village." Decorations will go up sometime after Thanksgiving.
